RECOGNIZED BY SOUTHERN LIVING AS ONE OF THE 14 BEST THINGS TO DO IN BALTIMORE, THE TURNOVER SHOP IS A MUST-VISIT FOR ANTIQUE LOVERS AND TREASURE HUNTERS ALIKE.

This year's St. George's Cup is dedicated to the 80th anniversary of VE Day and VJ Day. In May of 1940, Winston Churchill, in his first speech as Prime Minister, made this pledge, "Victory at all costs, victory despite all terror, victory however hard the road may be for without victory there is no survival." The special relationship between the United States and Great Britain began when Franklin Delano Roosevelt declared, "We must be the arsenal of democracy," when Churchill was alone fighting the war in desperate need. The United States provided capital and weapons and later joined the war against the Axis powers. The greatest generation—our parents, grandparents, and past members of St. George's Society went bravely to war in defense of Liberty and Freedom. Like our Society's motto, they were True To Their Trust. They were faithful, loyal, and dependable in fulfilling commitments and expectations placed upon them. They did their bit! On May 8, 1945, Churchill shouted out to a jubilant London crowd, "God bless you all. This is our victory. It is the victory of the cause of freedom in every land. In all our long history we have never seen a greater day than this. Everyone, man or woman has done their bit."

The United States and Great Britain share a common evolution of Liberty born out of the Magna Carta, the English Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. Along with the laurels of victory in World War II, both nations and their allies have passed the torch of democracy that must be kept bright in a world threatened by darkness. The inheritance and duty we share are what bond us.

William A Arrington, Jr Staff Sergeant Co B, 81st Combat Engineers, 106th Division

Captured in the Battle of the Bulge. Survived a 60km prisoner forced march, being held on a train that was bombed on Christmas Eve and the deprivation and diseases contracted at two POW camps. The details of his capture, in his own words, from his United States Army Separation Qualification Record...

“On the morning of 16 Dec 44 Pvt Torkelson and I were sent for help. Co B was surrounded and in a very bad situation. The Capt told us where he thought we could find the Colonel - about 2 miles away. We kept running into heavy resistance. About 3:00 o'clock that afternoon we met the Lt Gordon and Pvt Pastor, who were going after the trucks to move the company back. He told us to go with him. When we got to where we had left the trucks, they were gone, so we continued on with the intention of going to Bn CP, thinking they might have radio contact with Regimental CP. We ran into a medic with a wounded boy who said the Germans had taken St Vith that morning. By this time we were very tired and decided to hold up for the night. This Belgium woman gave us milk and bread and a place to sleep. It was about 11:00 PM there was a rap on the door. The Lt decided we would surrender. The place was actually surrounded by about a German company. We were taken to Sonberg, and put in a barn. The following day we marched to Prum. The next day they marched us to Gerolstein where we were locked in boxcars and were sent to Bad Orb (Stalag 9B). This trip required about 7 days. I was later moved to Ziegehain (Stalag 9A). I was liberated on 30 Mar 45.”

We are proud of his service and all members of “The Greatest Generation”

For the past two decades, the St. George's Society of Baltimore has had the pleasure of presenting the St. George's Cup to the winning team of the day, courtesy of our host, the Maryland Polo Club. The Society wishes to thank the Maryland Polo Club's President, Mr. Tom Huber, and Club Manager, Mr. Parker Pearce, for their continued support of this tradition.

Through its foundation, the St. George's Society of Baltimore is a 501 (c) (3) charitable organization that has supported a variety of charities in the past. Last year's recipients were The Royal British Legion, Trussell Trust and The Royal Oak Foundation. To find out more about these very worthy charities log onto their websites:
